Guidance

The full DOP (as above) should be used wherever space permits – if it will fit on entry forms, etc use the full DOP, and the full DOP should be available on our website (where relevant) – use of a “To view the full Details of Participation click here” type hyperlink is acceptable. In addition, if attending events at which people will be able to enter the competition, take along a laminated copy of the full DOP should anyone wish to view it, and a dozen or so copies, in case anyone wants to take a copy away with them.

The Short form DOP (below) should only be used in instances where the full DOP cannot be accommodated due to space issues – for example on DL flyers and posters, and some entry forms where there is insufficient space.

When using either the full or short form DOP, it is acceptable to use a small font; however the text must still be legible – please bear this in mind and ensure the general public will be able to read the text.

Short form DOP (for use where full DOP will not fit due to space restrictions).
